

SURGEON MAKES BAD BOY GOOD

Performs Operation on Incurable Lad's Skull Which Transforms Him Into One Deserving Medal for Genuine Goodness.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 27.—By a skilful operation on the skull and brain of a fifteen-year-old boy Dr.
Kolmer, a prominent local surgeon, succeeded in transforming him from a hopelessly bad boy, lazy, violent, and with strongly-developed criminal instincts, into a good boy, kind, obliging, obedient and eager to learn.

Jesse Beard, son of Mrs. Matilda Beard, of No. 315 East St. Clair street, had a bad fall or two when he was small, and it is supposed that the injuries to his skull at that time caused indentations which created a pressure on certain parts of the brain that Dr. Kolmer considered responsible for the boy's badness.

For a number of years Mrs. Beard tried to subdue the rebellious spirit of her son, but without success. Finally she appealed to the Juvenile Court.
At the earnest request of Mrs. Helen W. Rogers, the chief probation officer, who took great interest in the boy, Dr. Kolmer was called to make an examination. The physician found several depressions of the skull, and expressed the opinion that the pressure upon the boy's brain was the cause of his badness. He advised an operation.

For several months the mother of the boy hesitated to consent, but after a violent outbreak, during which the lad threatened to kill his mother and sister, she gave her consent, and Dr.
Kolmer performed the operation at the Deaconess Hospital.

He trephined over the largest of the depressions, and found a fracture of the skull, with the inner table considerably depressed. The line of fracture extended in three different directions.

Two weeks after the operation the boy was allowed to leave the hospital.
He was completely changed. He was perfectly obedient to his mother, seemed kind and pleasant and showed a strong desire to take up his studies again and to make up for lost time.
Dr. Kolmer considers the operation a complete success, and is of the opinion that in all cases of cranial deformity shape of the child's skull should be corrected within ten days after birth. He believes it can then be done with perfect safety.

DEPUTY SHERIFFS IN TIFFANY HOME

Young Burnett, Who Can't Live on Less than $30,000 a Year, Has His Furniture Levied
On.

Burnett Tiffany, who recently brought an action against the custodians of a trust fund left for him to obtain an increased income, claiming he could not live on less than $30,000 a year, suffered the inconvenience of four deputy sheriffs in his house last night.
Horne & Co., furniture dealers, obtained a judgment against Tiffany some time ago for $3,711. Deputy Sheriff Porges was sent to the house to levy on the furniture.

He was told by the maid that Mr.
Tiffany was out, and Mrs. Tiffany was not ill to see him. She slammed the door in his face, and he left after being told that the furniture was in Mrs.
Tiffany's name.

Horne & Co. then put up a bond of $10,000 to indemnify the Sheriff, and Porges was again sent to levy. With four deputies he visited the Tiffany home, at No. 125 West Eighty-eighth street, and obtained entrance through a basement door that had been left unlocked. Porges levied on the furniture and withdrew, leaving his four deputies in charge.

Burnett Tiffany has been in the public eye for a number of years, first by reason of his marriage to Emma Nordland Peterson, a young seamstress, with whom he lived but eleven days. For this marriage he was cut off by his father with a paltry income of $3,000 a year.

Mrs. Tiffany, to help her husband secure his inheritance, sued for and obtained a divorce in Rhode Island. She is now living in East Orange.

Tiffany brought suit against the executors to have his income increased, claiming that he could not live on less than $30,000 a year. During his suit the fact that he had secretly married Mrs.
Lucille Washburn Kaufman, the divorcee wife of L. A. Kaufman, was brought out.

Mrs. Kaufman met Tiffany in 1903 when, in the attire of an Indian queen, she appeared at the Madison Square Garden show of the Professional Woman's League to sell relics and curios. The records revealed the fact that her divorce from Kaufman was granted on the same day that she wedded Tiffany.

An Evening World reporter who called at the Tiffany home to-day was told by the maid that Mr. Tiffany was in bed and did not wish to be disturbed.

"Can I not see him for a couple of minutes? I wish to talk to him."

See Lawyer, Says Tiffany.

And then a voice from the top of the stairs said: "Who is it wants to talk to me?"

On being told it was a reporter Mr.
Tiffany came downstairs clad in a vivid suit of pajamas.

"I don't care to talk about this thing at all," he said. "I am going to consult my lawyer, Benjamin Tusk, to-day, and you will have to get all your information from him."

He was asked if he was going to raise the wages of the maid who successfully stood off the deputy sheriffs yesterday when they first called, and declined to answer.

And then a female voice came floating down from upstairs. It said: "It's a shame the way these things get into the papers. I don't see why they should be printed at all."

Two deputy sheriffs, one short and heavyset, the other tall and thin, were talking things comfortably at the Tiffany home.

Good Advice.

ing for. I've squeezed the lemon of life.

sweeter flavor?

CRIPPLE HANGED FOR WIFE MURDER

Alexander Kiss, with but One Arm, One Leg and One Eye, Hobbles to Gallows After Ordering His Coffin.

NEWTON, N. J., Oct. 27.—A one-armed man was put to death on the gallows at the Sussex County Jail, here, to-day. He was Alexander Kiss, a Hungarian, who shot and killed his wife, Anna, at their home in Franklin Furnace on Aug. 6 last.

A temporary building had been erected between the Court-house and the jail, in which the gallows was placed.
Kiss was led out from the jail to the gallows building at 10.34 by a priest and the Sheriff. He walked with the assistance of a cane and was cool and composed. Two priests had been with him for two hours previous to the execution, and to them he said he was willing to die.

The drop fell at 10.31, and twelve minutes later the man was pronounced dead and the body cut down. His neck had been broken by the fall.

Kiss some time ago ordered his coffin, and afterward insisted on it being brought to his cell, so that he could see it was all right. After a careful examination he said he thought it "was a little too short." He also ordered a tomato, and that, too, was taken to his cell for inspection. All the money he had left he sent to relatives in Hungary.
The gallows used to-day was the same on which two other murderers were executed, the last previous hanging here taking place in 1885.

DEATH IN A BRASS COMB.

Mrs. Kelbig Scratched Scalp and Head, Died of Blood-Poisoning.

Mrs. Matilda Kelbig, forty-five years old, of No. 25 Avenue C, died at her home yesterday afternoon of blood poisoning, the result of combing her hair with a brass comb.

About two weeks ago she bought the comb from a peddler. In combing her hair she scratched her scalp, and in removing hair from the comb scratched the palm of the left hand. A few days ago the hand began to swell, and the cut on her head became extremely painful. A physician was called but remedies failed.
